Competitors Landscape:

The realm of Activated Carbon Market is rife with cutthroat competition and fragmentation, a result of the considerable presence of both global conglomerates and domestic contenders. Industry insiders situated in diverse geographical regions are formulating and executing effective strategies to exploit unexplored opportunities and extend their business outreach. In this highly aggressive environment, prominent players are aggressively pursuing tactics to enhance their market share through various channels.

Activated Carbon Market Segmentation Analysis:

Granular Carbon to Gain Traction Due to its Rising Use in Many End-use Industries

Based on type, the global market is segmented into powdered, granular, and others. The Granulated Activated Carbon (GAC) segment is the fastest-growing segment as this type of carbon finds major usage in several industries, such as air & gas purification and water treatment.

Activated Charcoal to be Increasingly Used in Water Treatment Applications Due to Rising Industrial Activities

Based on application, the market is categorized into water treatment, air & gas purification, food & beverage, pharmaceutical & healthcare treatment, and others. The water treatment segment held the largest activated carbon market share in 2022 as the product is widely used in water treatment applications to eliminate organic compounds and toxic substances.

Drivers and Restraints:

Growing Adoption of Air Purification Systems to Accelerate Market Growth

Air pollution is becoming a major cause of concern globally as it is one of the primary causes of many severe health problems. Individuals in residential areas are suffering from breathing difficulties due to the lack of clean air. This is why many people are opting for air purification systems, which contain activated carbon to absorb the tiniest pollutants and impurities present in the air, providing them with clean, breathable air.
